Hi Christi -

It was great meeting you the other night. Here is your letter. I hope this works for you (I wasn't sure how long you have been here so I put a year). I did this on the club's computer so if we need to change it, Stephen can do it this weekend.

If you have any questions, you can call my cell 813-313-6480.

Good Luck
Kathleen

As an assistant manager, my function is to hire, evaluate performance in employees, inventory, ordering, and scheduling.

I would like it to say something to the extent that I am an asset in the company, provide great organizational skills, and make the company a more efficient and harmonious place to work :) You know, anything that will make me sound like the best employee ever! Thanks so much!
